

A CITY WORTH GETTING REVVED UP ABOUT.

July 31 - August 3 | Kentucky Exposition Center

The Street Rod Nationals can be found in the only city that knows a thing or two about horsepower – Louisville, Kentucky. 11,000 street rods will roll into the Kentucky Exposition Center from July 31 to August 3 to cruise the streets and flaunt their flame jobs. But you better hurry, tickets are moving faster than a decked deuce dual-quad. For more information about the 39th Annual Street Rod Nationals and the other exciting events Louisville has to offer, visit gotolouisville.com.
