

FREE Entertainment In Freedom Hall!

The following shows are FREE with paid admission to the Street Rod Nationals General Admission. Limited Seating. Come Early for Best Seats.

Friday, August 1

7 pm in Freedom Hall

1960s classic rock and roll at it's best! You'll sing along with golden oldie hits like She Cried, This Magic Moment, Come a Little Bit Closer, and more. Take a walk down memory lane with Jay and the Americans.

RIK
ROBERTS

If you like family-friendly comedy, you'll really enjoy Rik Roberts stand-up routines.

NOTE: You need to arrive at KEC before the 6 p.m. gate closing in order to attend this show.

Saturday, August 2
7 pm in Freedom Hall

Larry Gatlin & The Gatlin Brothers

There's no harmony quite as pure as family harmony. And the Gatlin Brothers' harmonies are some of the best. Grounded in gospel, their unique sound has kept fans coming back for more than three decades. Saturday night you can get your Gatlin fix! NOTE: You need to arrive at the KEC before the 7 pm gate closing in order to attend this show.

Saturday, August 2

2:30 pm in Freedom Hall

Endless
Summer
Band

The crowd will be entertained by the unmatched musical variety of the Endless Summer Band. Their powerful harmonies and hot rhythms are sure to please.

Sunday, August 3

10 am in Freedom Hall

Praise, Inc. Quartet and Sunday Worship Service

Everyone's invited to the Sunday morning worship service, a combination of music and spoken word. NSRA Chaplain Jim Rowlett presides. Praise, Inc. uplifts with their lilting Southern gospel harmonies.